Haskell & White's SEC Roundtable Series is designed for Southern California public companies to keep financial executives on the cutting edge of SEC developments and discuss these issues in an open environment. At our first roundtable, we will be presenting the change to International Financial Reporting Standards and how XBRL will change public company reporting.

Topics covered will include:

- The Change to IFRS
 - What is IFRS and the timeline for adoption?
 - What are some major differences between US GAAP and IFRS?
 - What do you need to know for implementation?
- Interactive Data – XBRL
 - What is XBRL?
 - Why XBRL?
 - When should companies begin preparing?
- Legal Environment Update
 - Coming soon: Mandatory E-Proxy
 - Changes to Rule 144
 - Smaller Reporting Companies: S-Eligibility and Transition to S-K

Speakers will include:

- John Poth, CPA, Partner, Haskell & White LLP
- Garett Sleichter, Associate, Rutan and Tucker, LLP
- Rushika Kumararatne, Associate, Rutan and Tucker, LLP
