

People News: April 17, 2014

New hires, promotions and more...

 Print  Email  Reprints

 Tweet  Share  Like

APRIL 17, 2014

CALIFORNIA

Wayne Pinnell, managing partner of Irvine-based Haskell & White LLP, was presented with one of California State University, Fullerton – Irvine Campus’ Outstanding Teacher Awards at its recent inaugural Faculty Recognition Event. ... Kenneth Ames, a tax advisory partner with White Nelson Diehl Evans LLP, has received a National Service to Youth Award from the California Boys & Girls Club of America for his 10 years of service on the Carlsbad Club’s Board of Directors. In conjunction with the award, he received a Certificate of Recognition from the City of Carlsbad. Ames has been a member of the staff of White Nelson Diehl Evans for 11 years, working out of the firm’s Carlsbad and Escondido offices. His area of expertise is tax consulting, compliance and litigation support services for entities of all types. He has also presented seminars and authored various articles on retirement plans, tax planning and marital dissolutions.