

COMPLIANCE WEEK

CPA firms Haskell & White, Katherman Kitts join forces

GRC Announcements | February 9, 2017

Haskell & White and Katherman Kitts & Co. have combined their practices, effective as of Feb. 1, and are now operating under the Haskell & White name. The expansion bolstered the combined international tax practice and increased the team of highly skilled CPAs. The entire team at Katherman Kitts & Co. moved to Haskell & White, and James Katherman and Stacie Kitts joined the firm as partners.

By combining the staffs and resources of both teams under the Haskell & White brand, all clients will have access to an extremely deep bench of hard-working and talented CPAs, now totaling more than 75 professionals. “With this combination, Haskell & White enhances its already robust standing in the market,” said Haskell & White’s Managing Partner Wayne Pinnell. “We will add more capabilities, including Katherman Kitts & Co.’s deep experience with technology companies and international tax expertise, to bring an even greater level of service to the clients of both firms.”

By joining Haskell & White, an independently owned accounting, auditing and tax consulting firms, the clients of Katherman Kitts & Co. will gain access to Haskell & White’s team of professionals and numerous resources and benefits that have been a hallmark of Haskell & White for decades. These capabilities include a team of audit professionals able to provide reviews, financial audits and retirement plan auditing, as well as access to a worldwide network of CPA firms in the Leading Edge Alliance.
