

Haskell & White Audit Manager Added to CSU San Marcos Foundation Board

By Sarah de Crescenzo

Wednesday, January 24, 2018

Like 0 Share in Share Tweet

Thomas Kenaya

Thomas Kenaya, an audit manager at the San Diego office of Haskell & White LLP, has joined the board of directors for the CSU San Marcos Foundation.

The nonprofit organization advises the university, which was established 25 years ago, on how money it raises is used.

The board recently launched CSU San Marcos' first comprehensive fundraising campaign, an effort to raise $50 million.

Kenaya has more than 10 years of professional experience, with with CPA firms and in private industry, according to Haskell & White.

He is a member of the California Society of CPAs (CalCPA) and the American Institute of CPAs; co-chair of CalCPA San Diego's Emerging Professional Committee; and a founding member of the planning committee for Accounting Day San Diego, a training program for accountants and other finance professionals.