Nicholas Booth Promoted to Haskell & White Tax Manager

Haskell & White, one of the largest public accounting firms in Southern California, congratulates Nicholas Booth, CPA on his promotion to Tax Manager. Booth joined Haskell & White two years ago, bringing with him four years of public accounting experience alongside a host of problem-solving and project management skills.

Booth specializes in tax compliance and planning for real estate, closely held businesses, and high net worth individuals. He works with stand-alone and multi-entity family groups, providing a variety of tax services including income tax planning, tax return preparation, calculating tax projections and business property tax compliance. Among both his clients and colleagues, Booth is valued for his ability to synergize and execute with critical thinking and precision.
