

January 31, 2018

accountingTODAY

People on the move: WNDE appoints new MP

By
Danielle Lee

Paul Treinen was named the new managing partner at White Nelson Diehl Evans, Irvine, assuming the role from Dave Doran, who retired on Dec. 31, 2017, after 42 years with the firm. Treinen, a tax and advisory services partner and member of the executive committee, joined WNDE in 1990 and became a partner in 2001.

SingerLewak added three partners: Nanaz Benyamini in the tax practice and Bryan Landau in the SL Biggs division, both in Westwood; and Chenying Fan in the tax practice in the Silicon Valley office.

Thomas Kenaya, audit manager at Haskell & White, San Diego, has joined the foundation board at California State University, San Marcos.