

Southern California Accounting Firm Moves to Larger San Diego Location

Isaac M. O'Bannon, Managing Editor On Oct 21, 2014

Haskell & White LLP, one of Southern California's largest independently owned accounting, auditing and tax consulting firms, has moved to a larger location in San Diego that better suits the growing office's needs. The new office is located in the La Jolla Gateway complex at 9171 Towne Centre Drive in the University Towne Center area.

"Our move into a larger office space will provide a comfortable and productive working environment for our increasing staff and a convenient place for client meetings," said Helen Adams, San Diego Area Managing Partner. "This new facility will enable us to continue providing excellent service for many years to come in the San Diego marketplace."

Haskell & White Managing Partner Wayne Pinnell reiterated Adams' dedication to serving the clients of San Diego with the top-notch accounting, auditing and business advisory services for which Haskell & White is known throughout Southern California. In San Diego, particularly, the firm services the needs of middle-market companies in the technology, life sciences, manufacturing and distribution and defense industries with audit, tax and business advisory services.

October 21, 2014

“Our clients in San Diego have been so welcoming to us since we first opened the original location here seven years ago, and we are pleased to expand our presence in the community with this new space,” Pinnell said.

In addition to the new office space, Haskell & White continues to expand the firm’s talent base in San Diego. Carlos Martinez recently joined the team as audit manager, bringing 10 years of experience with specializations in the manufacturing, technology, defense and aerospace sectors.