

IRVINE

WORLD NEWS

BUSINESS NEWS

Caliber Collision raises 3,612 meals for O.C. families

By ANDY NGUYEN
FOR THE REGISTER

105
All six Caliber Collision Centers in Orange County have collected hundreds of food items and cash donations for Irvine-based Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County after a two-week food drive. The food drive will help Second Harvest provide about 3,612 meals to local families throughout the county.

WELLDATRIX OPENING

Local Orange County company WellDatrix has opened a weight-loss center in Irvine in order to make their New Direction weight-loss program more accessible to residents of the county. The center, called the WellDatrix New Direction Weight Loss Center, has partnered with local medical weight management physicians and other weight-loss professionals to help clients achieved their weight-loss goals and maintain a healthy lifestyle. The center is near the Irvine Spectrum at 6 Jenner St., Suite 200. Visit welldatrix.com for more information.

HASKELL & WHITE ANNOUNCES SEVEN INTERNAL PROMOTIONS

Irvine-based accounting firm Haskell and White LLP have promoted seven of its staff members within the organization. Sherry Sedighi has been promoted to senior accountant, Paul Louis has been promoted to principal and Katie Aguirre has been promoted to manager in the organization's audit and business advisory services department.

Kristen Pucher, Brian Stiefel and Tim Titchenal have been promoted to managers and Quan Vuong has been promoted to senior accountant in the organization's tax department. Haskell and White's website is hwcpa.com.

7-ELEVEN CELEBRATES OPENING

Convenience store chain 7-Eleven has opened a location at Sand Canyon Plaza.

The store celebrated its grand opening July 27 with a ribbon-cutting ceremony with the Irvine Chamber of Commerce and featured live music from a DJ and trivia games with prizes that included T-shirts, gift cards and a TV.

SCOTT JONES NAMED PRESIDENT OF OC RMA

Scott Jones has been named president of Orange County Risk Management Association, which seeks to promote the use of sound risk principles in the financial services industry. Jones is currently the director of practice development at Irvine-based accounting firm White Nelson Diehl Evans LLP. Visit ocrma.org for more information about the organization.

IRVINE BUSINESS TO BE HONORED AT NATIONAL PHILANTHROPY DAY

The Irvine office of general contracting company S.D. Deacon Corp. of California will be honored with the Outstanding Small Corporation or Business award at this year's National Philanthropy Day Orange County Awards Luncheon on Nov. 15. The luncheon will be held at Hyatt Regency Orange County in Garden Grove with the theme of "Giving is Always in Season." In 2005, S.D. Deacon created the Deacon Charitable Foundation, which has made or will make grants totaling $32,500 to at least 15 local organizations by the end of 2012.

National Philanthropy Day Orange County is sponsored by the Orange County Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and is presented by the Orange County Register. Visit npdoc.org for more information.