Wendy Brown Joins Haskell & White Tax Team

Haskell & White, one of the largest public accounting firms in Southern California, is proud to welcome Wendy Brown, CPA, as the firm's newest tax manager. Brown brings 20 years of public accounting experience, including her specialties in real estate, engineering/consulting firms, as well as trust, estate and tax planning for high net worth individuals. She will develop and implement proactive tax strategies, and ensure compliance with the ever-changing tax laws, for a variety of entity structures including pass-through entities, C-Corps, and S-Corps.

Brown has also served as an interim controller, conducted internal audits and developed internal control procedures for her clients.
