

Haskell & White Adds Finance Director

Written by The Progressive Accountant

Irvine, Calif.-based Haskell & White has hired Eleanor Schultz as the firm's director of finance and administration. Schultz moves into a newly created position and will overs internal accounting and finance functions, human resources, and facilities. The CPA firm specializes in four areas: the real estate, manufacturing/distribution, technology and not-for-profit markets.

Before joining the accounting firm, Schultz worked at Advantage Sales & Marketing where she was division controller from October 2007 through January 2011 and director of finance from January 2011 through June 2014.

As manager of financial reporting for Turner Broadcasting from November 2005 through June 2007, she managed the more than $2.5 billion ad sales revenue budget for all entertainment, animation and news cable television networks including TBS, TNT, CNN, HLN and The Cartoon Network.
